

Dear Eagle Class,

Welcome back to Year 5. I hope you have all had a wonderful summer and feel refreshed and ready for what I am sure will be an exciting and enjoyable year. It is a year of new starts for all of us and I am very much looking forward to seeing how much you have all grown up and to an exciting year as move forward and learn new things.

Anyway, you have been in the classroom and seen what I have tried to do to make it a colourful and fun place to work and learn. But that is not all I want in the room. I want you to be able to put your stamp on it as well. So this is why I would like to set you a little homework challenge to add your own decoration to the room.

I would like two things to go up in the room which represent your creative ability. First, some eagle inspired artwork (this could be a painting, sketch, collage for example, or anything else which enters your creative minds). And second, a poem inspired by an eagle (this could be an acrostic, kenning, haiku, shape poem or just a poem which rhymes). It would be good to see everyone create something for our classroom so have fun, good luck and I look forward to seeing what you come up with.

All the best

Mr Wakelin

Lying, listening,
To small rustles all around Waiting to be found

Haiku

a worm-eater
a fast-flier
a noisy-singer
a colourful-tweeter
a land-scanner
a nest-maker
a window-messer
a crop-ruiner
a seed-eater
a creature-stalker
a high-glider

Kenning

put these together,
I'm a bird!

Eagle
i am
eagle
i am
the one who was created to breathe the atmosphere of the angels and ride the storm clouds like they were white horses, yes, i was made to catch rainbows in my sharp talons, i who am strong will catch your fall. You who are weak will trust me for i want nothing more than to be your Savior. I will hide you under wings. You will mine and i will never leave you nor forsake you. Ever. World without end
